

THE CHAMPS

Wilmington takes Eastern Mass Tourney

Wildcat pitching, defense
tops Trojans

The trick is to give Jim Stewart the baseball, and let him settle into that familiar middle inning groove that has the opposition hitting into the sticky Wilmington defense. The Bridgewater-Raynham Trojans did just that Monday afternoon at Quincy's Adams Field as Coach Jimmy Gillis' Wilmington High baseball team captured the Eastern Mass. Division Two title with a 3-1 textbook of a ballgame. For Little Leaguers this was the game to be filmed for the instructional clinic as Stewart came up with the big pitch when he needed it and his teammates were right there with the big fielding and hitting plays that clinched the championship.

The win culminated a Wildcat title drive that saw them winning 16 of their last 18 games - including tourney wins over Bourne (6-5), Holbrook (2-1) and Dom Savio (7-6).

The two hit, nine strikeout performance was Stewart's third tournament win. Wilmington High's star righthander had posted wins against Bourne and Holbrook before going the nine inning distance enroute to the title. The win upped Jim's seasonal mark to 13-1.

The offense was keyed by Steve Woods, Bruce Butters, and J. Stewart. Woods went four for five with a double and three singles, while Butters continued his hot-hitting with a two run single in the first inning. Stewart singled to send Steve Woods (double) home with an insurance run in the fifth inning.

The Wildcats got all the runs they would need in that first inning as Steve Woods beat an infield hit and went to second when Trojan shortstop Chuck Holbrook threw the ball away. With one out Jim Stewart lined a single to center off BW starter Greg Perry. When centerfielder Bill Poirier overthrew the cutoff man Woods and Stewart advanced to put runners on second and third - setting up Butters' line shot to right center to score two runs after Bob Woods had struck out.

Stewart survived a shaky first inning in which he allowed two Trojan hits and walked a man. The BR crew didn't get a hit and stranded four important runners in the fourth and fifth innings as Stewart went through a brief wild spell.

The WHS defense made all the plays that had to be made. As usual the outfield play of Bruce Butters, Tom Stewart, and Art Sugrue was outstanding. "We have a steady outfield, said an elated Gillis after the game, we spend a lot of time on defense. Defense wins." The Wildcats proved their coaches' theory as all three outfielders made fine running catches with both Stewart and Sugrue making a pinpoint relay throw. The Stewart-Rich Medeiros-Bob Woods connection cut down BW's Bob Dooley with the tying run in the first inning. With Wilmington protecting a 2-1 first inning lead Bill Poirier hit a flyball to Stewart in centerfield. Tom set up nicely after making the catch and fired a perfect strike to the infield that would have nabbed Dooley by a good five feet if firstbaseman Medeiros hadn't cut the ball off. But Rich reacted quickly to pivot and fire the ball to catcher Woods who blocked the plate beautifully. It was the play of the game. Muir still hasn't touched home.

The lone Trojan run came across on almost a carbon copy of the Woods block - only this time big Bob couldn't hold on to the ball.

Greg Perry lined a single to right and Sugrue made it close with a fine relay going from Medeiros to Woods. Baserunner John Muir managed to jar the ball loose from Woods to score the run that made it 2-1 WHS after one inning.

The Wildcat defensive show wasn't over yet, however as catcher Woods picked off BR's Bill Poirier at third base in the sixth inning after the Trojans had rallied to put men on first and third after a walk and a throwing error by shortstop Bill Blaisdell. With the double steal on Woods gave a pump fake to second base and fired to Randy Foster at third who was waiting for the scrambling Poirier. Not to be outdone the flyboys came up with three pretty fair plays of their own to preserve the scanty lead. In the fourth inning Butters raced in to his left to nab a sinking line drive. Stewart raced into right-center to grab a deep shot in the seventh; and Sugrue charged in to pick off a slicing ball in the eighth frame.

Stewart rises to the occasion
Jim Stewart thrives on the tough man-on-base situations.

The lanky Wilmington star frustrated the Trojans in the fifth and sixth innings when they appeared to be making their move. He applied the heater to his fastball and struck out Dooley with runners on second and third in the fifth, and he came back to fan BW's best hitter-catcher Steve Dowd (three tourney homers) to kill another second and third situation in the sixth stanza.

During the final three innings Stewart was in complete command. The Trojan hitters were taking the called strike - a sure sign that they hadn't figured out Stewart's good stuff. Gillis knew his ace had excellent velocity. "That's the hardest he's thrown all year related the WHS mentor. I thought the Tewksbury game (the no-hitter) was the hardest - but he rises to the occasion." Rise he did as the big winner struck out four Trojans over the final three innings, including Dowd and John Heslin on

The intimidator

Wildcat star pitcher Jim Stewart has intimidated a few teams this year with his size, style, reputation, - and most importantly - his talent. Jim tossed a two-hitter Monday afternoon at Quincy to give Wilmington the Division Two Eastern Mass. Championship.

called third strikes for the final two outs of the game.

"Hell of a job"

Gillis told his kids on the bus ride home that they "did a hell of a job." That can't be argued with as the Wildcats are the first Merrimack Valley team to win the State Title since the Chelmsford Lions turned the trick in 1966. The last Wildcat team to get this far was the 1962 outfit that had Jim Gillis as one of its star players. They lost the title game to Randolph 6-5. Randolph, like Quincy, is a member of the Old Colony League. This time the Old Colony boys came up a bit short.

The Wildcats now travel to Chicopee this Thursday afternoon to battle Western Mass. Division Two champ Drury High of North Adams. Drury defeated Waconah Regional 2-1 in 10 innings Monday afternoon.

Thursday's game is the state semi-final.

Wildcat tales: Stewart threw 140 pitches for the game - totaling 59 balls and 81 strikes. The consensus on the bus was that Jim is a lousy clobberer - but a hell of a pitcher.

WHS got seven hits for 35 times up against BR ace Greg Perry for a 200 batting average. "We got the hits when it counted today," said Gillis when analyzing the tilt.

If the Wildcats defeat Drury Thursday afternoon in the state semi-finals they will travel back to Quincy this Saturday to battle for the state title. The opponent could possibly be Bridgewater-Raynham.

Scouts at Quincy Monday afternoon included Boston College Coach Eddie Pellegrini and a member of the Philadelphia Phillies organization.

Federal grants yield $773,997

Four Federal grants to the Town of Wilmington have been approved during the past week, to the tune of $773,997.

The largest grant came under the Public Works Employment Act. Under that act, the town received $593,000 for the construction of new water mains. The mains will be of the 12 inch variety, but the locations have not yet been finalized.

Another water improvement, this one funded under the CETA program, will bring the town $52,289. The project is the rehabilitation of a well at the Brown's Crossing well field, plus the testing of all town fire hydrants and water main gates. The project will also provide for the painting of all fire hydrants.

Two other CETA projects have also been funded. One will clear unwanted brush from town roads, paint guard rails, and remove debris from streams and waterways. The other will provide for an inventory of library holdings and for a drive for library registration to increase utilization of the library. The brush clearing grant is for $63,308. The library grant is for $65,400.

Under the CETA funded grants, an estimated 20 persons will be employed.

Lake Street lacks a bridge

"Where is the Lake Street bridge?" Mrs. Joan Nicoll asked the Wilmington Board of Selectmen.

Mrs. Nicoll has no trouble finding the bridge. She lives next to it, and for the past several months, the bridge has been closed. Last fall, the Massachusetts D.P.W. began to rebuild it, but work was halted because of the early winter and the necessity to alter the approaches.

Last fall, the projected date was given as being in the spring. Monday night, a fall date was mentioned. Laminated timbers will be installed.

Mrs. Nicoll complained that her property was being damaged by people who arrive at the dead end and try to turn around in her driveway. She also said that small children are crossing the railroad tracks at the bridge. The selectmen instructed the Town Manager to have the Highway superintendent investigate the situation and take corrective action.

Senate election next Tuesday

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Tuesday of next week for the special election for the Senate seat of the Fifth Middlesex District. Three candidates are running for the unexpired term of resigned Sen. Ronald MacKenzie of Burlington.

On the Democratic ticket is Rep. Carol Amick of Bedford. Her Republican opponent is former Wilmington selectman Michael Caira.

Running on the American Party ticket is Dr. Parker Weaver of Lexington.

The Wilmington League of Women Voters will hold a candidates night at the Wilmington Memorial Library Wednesday night, June 15 at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

Voting on Tuesday takes place at the Wilmington High School Gymnasium.

129 study

Engineer Norm Wilkins of the firm of Barnes & Jarnis (right) and Walter Gustafson of the Mass. D.P.W. Monday night reviewed with the Wilmington selectmen the status of the study for the relocation of Route 129. The decision on what will be built will be made in the fall, by the Commissioner of Public Works. Their study presents the proposals in segments, allowing a partial building of the road. Most of the data had been presented at earlier hearings.

Houselots haunt selectmen

A problem which seemed to have been solved by the creation of the Official Map came back to bother the Board of Selectmen on Monday night.

The Official Map defined existing streets and the subdivision control law limited home building to the Official Map streets. Lots that were laid out on "paper streets" could only be used after an "Official Map" hearing. In holding the hearing, the selectmen could consider the hardship involved, and the work which would be needed to make the street usable.

One intent of the official map was to prevent builders from erecting houses on streets with no improvements, which would leave the now homeowner with the burden of paying betterments.

Monday night, a couple appeared before the selectmen seeking to build on a lot on Wabash Road, which is not on the official map. James and Patricia Chryst had bought the parcel of land from Eastern Realty Trust.

The selectmen had a letter from Robert Stevens of Eastern Realty Trust, alleging that the Selectmen had caused him (Stevens) damages by restrictions on his building in the town.

After reading the letter, Selectman Dan Gillis commented that if Stevens were challenging the subdivision control law, then he should do so. Gillis moved for disapproval of the application.

Another man was present who had bought a lot from Stevens. He said that it had failed a percolation test.

Mrs. Chryst had said that Stevens had told them that their lot would pass and had passed a percolation test. Her father, John Nazzaro of Burlington was present, and said that he had dug several test holes and that the drainage was good.

Mrs. Chryst said that she had checked at the Town Hall Annex, but that nobody there was able to come up with a percolation test approval.

Selectman James Banda told the Chrysts "I don't want to see you get stuck." He asked if they had already bought the land. They replied that they had.

Banda said that if the selectmen voted the lot, that it was no guarantee that the other requirements would be met.

Selectman James Miceli said "I think you're foolish to go this route."

Gillis told of the years of work it took to attempt to control building on unsatisfactory lots. He emphasized that the problem was not with the couple seeking to build, but rather was with the builder who had sold the land.

He said that he had no personal animosity for Stevens, but that his houselots were another matter. He then advised Mrs. Chryst to back off.

She left the room in tears. Mr. Chryst and Mr. Nazzaro remained and continued to discuss the problem with the selectmen.

Miceli moved for approval, subject to septic, water and road construction regulations.

Gillis said that his motion on the floor stood to turn down the application. The selectmen voted on that and defeated it 3 to 2.

Miceli then moved again for approval, citing the couple's investment and the emotional factor. Approval was voted unanimously.

Gillis apologized to Mrs. Chryst, and said that if any problems arose with the lot, to come back to the selectmen.

Whitefield School will be offices

New tenants will take up offices in the Whitefield School next month. Now in its final month of classes, the school is being phased out because of declining enrollments in the schools.

The Choate Memorial Hospital will locate on the first floor, with a fund-raising office. The Board of Selectmen granted approval of this office on Monday night.

The second floor will house the Planning Board and the Conservation Commission.

New CETA eligibility

Revised CETA Title VI eligibility requirements mean more Massachusetts residents are likely to qualify for over 20,000 public service jobs in Massachusetts funded under the recent Congressional supplemental appropriation.

The revisions increase the maximum level in most areas and relax some of the rules regarding term of employment. Generally, low-income long-term unemployed, veterans and AFDC recipients are eligible.

Income criteria are set by the federal government, based on geographical areas and family size. The new eligibility requirements are less stringent, and more people will qualify under these criteria. Some people who were deemed ineligible previously may now be eligible. Individuals must apply and fill out an application which details their economic condition in order to receive an eligibility determination. In addition, individuals must be long-term unemployed or AFDC recipients to be eligible. Specifically, individuals must meet the above income criteria and one of the following criteria:

1. Currently unemployed and receiving unemployment benefits for 25 of the previous 30 weeks (the rule had been: unemployed and collecting for 15 consecutive weeks); or
2. Currently unemployed and ineligible for any reason for unemployment benefits for 25 of the previous 30 weeks (it had been: only those unemployable); or
3. Currently unemployed and has exhausted unemployment benefits, whose benefit year is still in effect; or
4. AFDC recipients, including AFDC, unemployed fathers; or
5. Veterans (or those discharged for a service-connected disability) who have not obtained permanent unsubsidized employment since discharge.

Individuals should apply immediately to their local CETA Office at 22 Forest Street, Medford, Massachusetts 02155 for a CETA eligibility determination, as public service jobs are available now.

The Medford CETA Office is now open between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. This will continue for the summer months.

Tewksbury Garden Club

Tewksbury Garden Club members took part in the club's annual spring civic beautification project. The group, under the direction of Mrs. Lawrence Polimena, planted annuals and azaleas at various locations in the town, including the town hall, veterans' monument, the library and the fire station.

The May meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Rikeman, 201 Carter Lane. A lovely centerpiece of purple Iris was created by Mrs. Robert Kennedy. Following the business meeting, members enjoyed refreshments provided by Mrs. Rikeman and Mrs. Edward Sheehan. Members have been planning for the installation of officers which will be held at the home of Mrs. John Ploubides.

The theme of the meeting will be "Solemn Yewma," a Greek feast, under the direction of Mrs. Ploubides. Members will participate in preparing various Greek dishes for the affair.

Title 6 - Round 3 public service projects

Medford CETA has announced that additional funds are available for projects which provide public services to the community by employing CETA workers, under the recent extension of Title VI of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act. Government and non-profit organizations serving the Medford Consortium (Burlington, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, North Reading, Reading, Stoneham, Wakefield, Wilmington, Winchester and Woburn) are eligible to submit proposals for projects of three to 32 months duration. Organizations serving low income, long-term unemployed and minority groups are encouraged to apply.

This is the third round funding for Title VI projects. All interested bidders are encouraged to apply. Submission of a proposal under Round Three will have no effect on the Round One or Round Two selection process. Proposal deadline is July 8. Project guidelines, details on submitting proposals and application forms are available through Carol Steele at the Medford CETA office, 35-720.

New records at Aleppo Temple

Aleppo Temple No. 13, at the end of Fordham Road, Wilmington, established several new records in Wilmington last weekend. It was the occasion of the annual strawberry festival and an installation at the temple.

The Shriners are moving from Boston to Wilmington. Not all their arrangements have been completed - for instance, their parking lot is still incomplete. As it was the parking lots of six neighboring industries were filled, by permission, to park the cars of the overflow crowd.

It was the largest strawberry festival ever held by Aleppo Temple, and at the same time the largest meal ever served in the Town of Wilmington. Six thousand Shriners sat down to eat at the same time, at a buffet meal.

The ceremony of installation was the largest ceremony ever held by the Shriners of Aleppo Temple.

Among other things, Imperial Potentate Peter Val Prado of Vermont had, as his guests, nine other Potentates.

"Broken Hearted"

Our dog Peppy, missing since 11 o'clock Saturday June 11. Peppy is a very sick dog and must be on medication. She had a heart attack three months ago. She has a chronic heart condition and must take six pills a day every day. She is also due for another E.K.E. at the Andover Animal Hospital. Peppy is 11 years old and we want her home where she belongs and has been for 11 years. We are so very worried where she may be. We have gone looking for her, but she is nowhere to be found.

If anyone out there has found her, and has her please, please return her to us. Our number is 658-6345; or contact the dog warden of Tewksbury. Any information pertaining to her whereabouts dead or alive with no questions asked and will be gratefully appreciated. We want her returned either way. We all loved her very much and miss her terribly.

Selectman Smith resigned

Can a Lieutenant of Police also serve his town as a selectman? Wilmington has such an instance. Lieutenant John Imbimbo is also Selectman Imbimbo. When he offered his candidacy the Town Counsel ruled, after some study, that there was no conflict of interest.

In North Reading a Lieutenant of Police named William Smith was also elected a selectman, and then re-elected, in 1975 and 1976. In both elections the men who were serving as town counsel (two different men) ruled there was no conflict of interest.

Another attorney, Walter Bilowz, who had also served as a Town Counsel, was a candidate in the 1975 election. It was Attorney Bilowz who pressed the suit against Mr. Smith in Middlesex Superior Court.

There were several charges, only two of which remained as the case drew to its close. One of these two was that Lt. Smith was illegally appointed, in that he had served on the Planning Board in the period just before his election as police lieutenant. Smith's answer to this was that Mr. Bilowz was the Town Counsel at the same time, and had not issued any ruling.

The second charge against Smith was that he was in violation of a Supreme Court ruling on incompatibility of offices. Under that ruling the individual is required to accept the last job sought (in this case Selectman) and relinquish the first position.

Smith contended that he believed the North Reading Town Charter superseded the Common Law, in that a town employee is not barred from running for office.

Win or lose, the position of Mr. Smith could be a matter of widespread public interest if there was to be a ruling by the court.

It now seems there will be none. Mr. Smith resigned as a selectman last week. In his letter of resignation to the Town Clerk Mr. Smith said he could not afford to risk a determination by the court that he had resigned as a policeman, in accepting the selectmen's position.

Further Mr. Smith did not wish to impose upon the town of North Reading the additional expenses of appeals and so forth, after a ruling.

Mr. Smith said he enjoyed serving the town of North Reading, but it can be said, the case in which he was involved has now become No Case.

These candidates for State Senate know there are two sides to every issue.

Ms. Amick often talks one side and then votes the other:

- Like when she claims to be a champion of representative government and then votes in favor of a graduated income tax ... repeatedly rejected by the people in state referenda. (H5340, June 6, 1975)
- Like when she claims to favor "open government" and then votes against a bill requiring that a list of personnel added to the House payroll be made available throughout the House. (March 30, 1976)
- Like when she speaks of fiscal responsibility and then votes final approval to the bloated 3.9 billion dollar 1977 budget; a budget which included a pay raise for state legislators. (H4950, June 30, 1976)
- Or when she campaigns in favor of raising the drinking age and then votes to keep it at 18. (H6147, May 28, 1975)

Sometimes she takes both sides at the same time:

- Like when she says that abortion is a private matter in which the government should take no part, and also comes out in favor of providing tax funds for abortion. (L.W.V. Candidates Night, Waltham, May 18, 1977)
- Or when she opposes fiscal autonomy for schools and supports the 4/5's legislation to allow a town meeting to alter a school budget, and then in a letter to teachers just prior to the primary, explains her vote by saying that she "felt obligated to follow the Bedford voters' desires. However, I will support fiscal autonomy in the future." (H2074, April 20, 1976)

Other times she is not quite sure just what side she's on:

- Like when she votes in favor of Auto Insurance Legislation which results in state-wide chaos and then announces her intention to introduce legislation to establish a state-owned insurance company to clean up the current mess. (S2115, November 26, 1975)
- Like when she tells teachers that "I have publicly supported tenure in testimony before the Committee on Education. The Massachusetts Teachers Association recently told me I voted for a bill which it felt 'anti-tenure', but when I voted for that measure I thought it only involved peer review, and didn't abolish tenure." (H660, March 30, 1976)
- Or when she faced a House vote on busing—the most controversial, volatile issue in the Commonwealth's history—and stood up to courageously vote ... "Present." (May 19, 1976)

In all fairness, there are times when Ms. Amick is consistent:

- Like when she votes in favor of taking firearms away from police officers during riots and other emergencies, and against stricter controls on furloughs for convicted murderers and rapists. (May 17, September 29, 1976 and August 24, 1976)
- Or when she votes in favor of allowing children under 16 to receive birth control devices without parental consent, and against an annual observance of "Pro-Life Month." (H4906, March 29, 1977 and March 7, 1977)

Mike Caira understands your side and has the courage to vote for it.

That's why he's running for Senate—to give you the vote on Beacon Hill that you haven't been getting from people like Ms. Amick.

As a family man, homeowner, taxpayer, business manager, former selectman and former Governor's assistant, Mike has felt the same frustrations you've felt in dealing with unresponsive, irresponsible government. But Mike Caira has the working knowledge and experience to help turn those frustrations into positive action.

Mike believes in a balanced state budget. Full state funding for state-mandated programs. Abolishment of wasteful county government. The right of townspeople to override their own school committee's budget. Work for all those who are able to work. And he believes in you—your rights, your needs, and your judgement about the way things should be done around here.

Mike owes no political favors on Beacon Hill. He would give your voice in the Senate the fresh start it needs. Give Mike Caira your vote on June 21st so he can give us ours.

Vote for the man
who'll vote for you.

These candidates for State Senate know there are two sides to every issue.

Ms. Amick often talks one side and then votes the other:

- Like when she claims to be a champion of representative government and then votes in favor of a graduated income tax ... repeatedly rejected by the people in state referendum. (H5340, June 6, 1975)
- Like when she claims to favor "open government" and then votes against a bill requiring that a list of personnel added to the House payroll be made available throughout the House. (March 30, 1976)
- Like when she speaks of fiscal responsibility and then votes final approval to the bloated 3.9 billion dollar 1977 budget, a budget which included a pay raise for state legislators. (H4950, June 30, 1976)
- Or when she campaigns in favor of raising the drinking age and then votes to keep it at 18. (H6147, May 28, 1975)

Sometimes she takes both sides at the same time:

- Like when she says that abortion is a private matter in which the government should take no part, and also comes out in favor of providing tax funds for abortion. (L.W.V. Candidates Night, Waltham, May 18, 1977)
- Or when she opposes fiscal autonomy for schools and supports the 4/5's legislation to allow a town meeting to alter a school budget, and then in a letter to teachers just prior to the primary, explains her vote by saying that she "felt obligated to follow the Bedford voters' desires. However, I will support fiscal autonomy in the future." (H2074, April 20, 1976)

Other times she is not quite sure just what side she's on:

- Like when she votes in favor of Auto Insurance Legislation which results in state-wide chaos and then announces her intention to introduce legislation to establish a state-owned insurance company to clean up the current mess. (S2115, November 26, 1975)
- Like when she tells teachers that "I have publicly supported tenure in testimony before the Committee on Education. The Massachusetts Teachers Association recently told me I voted for a bill which it felt 'anti-tenure', but when I voted for that measure I thought it only involved peer review and didn't abolish tenure." (H660, March 30, 1976)
- Or when she faced a House vote on busing—the most controversial, volatile issue in the Commonwealth's history—and stood up to courageously vote ... "Present." (May 1976)

In all fairness, there are times when Ms. Amick is consistent:

- Like when she votes in favor of taking firearms away from police officers during riots and other emergencies, and against stricter controls on furloughs for convicted murderers and rapists. (May 17, September 29, 1976 and August 24, 1976)
- Or when she votes in favor of allowing children under 16 to receive birth control devices without parental consent, and against an annual observance of "Pro-Life Month." (H4906, March 29, 1977 and March 7, 1977)

Mike Caira understands your side and has the courage to vote for it.

That's why he's running for Senate—to give you the vote on Beacon Hill that you haven't been getting from people like Ms. Amick.

As a family man, homeowner, taxpayer, business manager, former selectman and former Governor's assistant, Mike has felt the same frustrations you've felt in dealing with unresponsive, irresponsible government. But Mike Caira has the working knowledge and experience to help turn those frustrations into positive action.

Mike believes in a balanced state budget. Full state funding for state-mandated programs. Abolishment of wasteful county government. The right of townspeople to override their own school committee's budget. Work for all those who are able to work. And he believes in you—your rights, your needs, and your judgement about the way things should be done around here.

Mike owes no political favors on Beacon Hill. He would give your voice in the Senate the fresh start it needs. Give Mike Caira your vote on June 21st so he can give us ours.

Vote for the man
who'll vote for you.

Tewksbury's bakery trucks

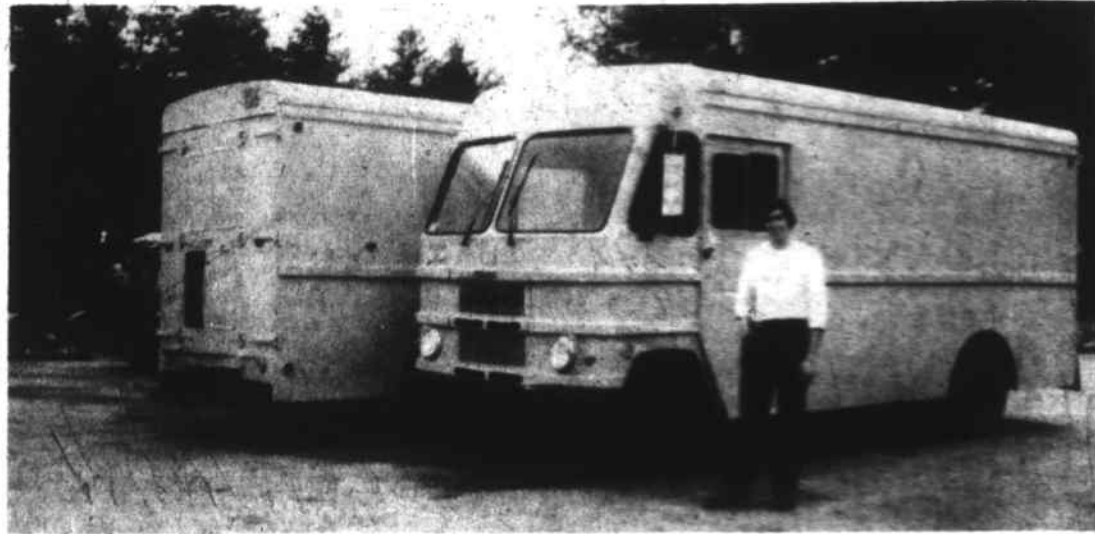

Kasanof's Bakery was a well known New England institution famous for its Jewish rye bread. About five months ago the bakery closed its doors and went out of business. The entire property was sold off.

One person who heard of it was Jack McCarthy of the highway department.

He suggested that Tewksbury buy some of the trucks which were used to deliver bread.

The trucks were bought. Basically they were in good condition. It cost the town about $75 apiece to put them through the town garage, and this included the cost of yellow paint.

The trucks are to be used by all departments except fire and police. The highway department has use for them. The sign department finds they are wonderful for signs, and the water department is interested. Town DPW Superintendent Marc Prince believes the town has saved about $10,000.

LETTER

Dear Larr:
 I am writing this as an open letter of gratitude to the really fine people of the community. They have shown my family and me so many kindnesses during the very difficult period of illness and the subsequent death of my husband, Representative Fred Cain.

As everyone can appreciate, the loss of a family member is a particularly heavy burden requiring important personal adjustments. However, it is times such as this that serve to illustrate what love and friendship are actually all about. My family and I have been virtually overwhelmed with the many different expressions of sympathy occurring during this time of sorrow. The honor guards, the special meals prepared for us, the Little League tribute, the great number of people who went out of their way to attend the wake and the funeral, the priests who said Mass, the "Friends of Fred Cain" who have worked so hard for Fred through the years, and the many donations of memorial gifts and flowers have all served as a very uplifting experience at a time when our spirits have been so understandably low.

I guess what I am really trying to say is simply "Thank You to Everybody." You have given the Cain family a memory of friendship and love that will last forever. With sincere thanks and appreciation,
 Ann Cain

Wildcats nip Holbrook, Dom Savio

Last week the Wildcats continued their heart-stopping brand of tournament baseball as one run wins over Holbrook and Dom Savio paved the way for the championship tilt at Quincy. Game details:

Wednesday, June 8, Wildcats 2-Holbrook 1....The Wilmington road show continued with another barn burner in the wilds of Holbrook. Wilmington escaped with the win after the game Holbrook club rallied for a run in the last of the ninth as they loaded the bases with none out against WHS righthander Jim Stewart. The Wildcats reached Holbrook starter Steve Machaby for single runs in the fifth and sixth innings - providing Stewart with the "cushion" he needed to get out another big win.

In the fifth inning the Wildcats got their first hit off Holbrook ace Machaby that led to the initial WHS run. Rich Medeiros walked to open the inning and with two out Foster drilled the ball into left field for the single that scored Medeiros.

In the sixth the Wildcats bunched together with two hits for their last run of the game. Bob Woods tripled to his power ally in right-center and Butters followed with a groundball single to leftfield that scored Woods with the second run.

In the ninth inning the final WHS scoring chance went by the boards when Tom Stewart died on thirdbase after doubling and moving up on a bad pickoff attempt. Machaby struck out Art Sugrue and got Foster to fly to center as the mini-rally died.

WHS thirdbaseman Randy Foster botched a play in the fifth inning but redeemed himself with the play of the game in that same frame. Randy overthrew firstbase on a routine ground ball to put Holbrook runners on first and third with one out. Firstbaseman Rich Medeiros made a fine play in knocking the Foster throw down - thus saving a run for the Wildcats. Stewart escaped the fifth inning trouble when he had Holbrook's Steve Salvucci killing worms with a groundball to secondbaseman Steve Woods. Woods held the runner at third to set up the Foster gem that will have to go down as the best play of the tourney. Rich Mananimon topped a dribbler to third that Randy stayed with gobbling and firing to a streaching Medeiros.

The ninth inning dramatics was typical Wildcat tourney play. A pair of singles and a walk loaded the sacks with none out against Stewart. Coach Jim Gillis stuck with his veteran hurler and the confidence paid dividends as Mark Morrissey skied to Tom Stewart in center, with the WHS outfielder making a strong throw to hold the runner at third.

Pinch hitter Pete Maccorone struck out on three pitches before the Wildcats again came up with the big play. Morrissey lined a single to leftfield to score one run but leftfielder Bruce Butters fired a perfect relay throw to cutoff man Medeiros, who saw from his position between home and third that Holbrook runner Ron McDonald had taken a wide turn rounding the thirdbase bag. Rich reacted quickly by firing a perfect strike to Foster at third to nail the diving McDonald for the final out of the game.

Thursday, June 9-Wildcats 7-Dom Savio 6....The Wildcats rallied for four runs in the bottom of the seventh in a game played at Lowell's Alumni Field in a steady drizzle. Dom Savio had struck for four runs of their own in the top half of the seventh to go up 6-3 after Bob Woods had sent the Wildcats ahead 3-2 in the sixth inning with a towering 420 foot home run over the left center-field fence. The seventh inning Wildcat drive saw Randy Foster, Steve Woods, Bill Blaisdell, and Bruce Butters banging out singles. Jim Stewart ripped a double to leftfield that drove home the two runs that tied the score at 6-6 after Blaisdell had bounced a single over the mound to cut the Dom Savio lead to 6-4. With the bases jammed Butters lined his single to give the Wildcats the lead to stay as Randy Foster came on in relief of lefty John Milano with one out in the seventh inning to slam the door on the hard-hitting Spartans the rest of the way.

Randy ended with a flurry in the ninth inning as he fanned a pair to preserve the Wildcat win. The other WHS runs came in the first inning on RBI singles by Bob Woods and Rich Medeiros. Wilmington reached Dom Savio pitchers Carpiello and Mike Woods for 12 hits. Carpiello was hobbled briefly in the seventh inning when Steve Woods lined a vicious shot off the pitcher's right thigh. He returned to the mound, but was then reached by the RBI hits by Blaisdell and Jim Stewart that gave the Wildcats the lead - and sent him to rightfield in favor of the lanky junkballing lefty Mike Woods.

Winchell cops title

WHS All-State discus man Steve Winchell won the MVC title last weekend at Andover with a 147'1" toss.

Winchell was the lone Wildcat winner.

Wildcat celebration

Coach Jim Gillis (dark shirt, hand raised) leads the charge off the Wilmington bench as the Wildcats rush to congratulate pitcher Jim Stewart.

Eligible for combat pay

This umpire is sure to apply for combat pay after being involved in this collision with Wildcat third baseman Randy Foster. Foster was diving for an errant throw from shortstop Billy Blaisdell in the sixth inning. Bridgewater-Raynham's Dave Martino beat the Blaisdell peg to the bag, but was later picked off third by WHS catcher Bob Woods.

Gamble pays off

Steve Woods gambled here as he tried to go from second to third on a ball hit to the shortstop. This time the risk was worth it as Woods was safe in the third inning.

'Then there was one'

The boys of summer

L. to R.: front row: Bob Blackburn, Kenny Sugarman, Pete Emery, Larry Frost, George Doucette, and John Robbins.

With the boys is their bus driver "Casey" Gagnon.

Wilmington High coach Jim Gillis has used up the space on a countdown chart in the Wildcats locker room. The WHS coach has been marking off each victory on a chart that should read 'and then there was one.' The Wildcats drive to the coveted Eastern Mass. Division Two title ended with the 3-1 win at Quincy Monday afternoon. Anything Wilmington wins from here on is gravy heaped upon the already over abundance of extra helpings the Wildcats have had since reaching their goal of winning the MVC championship and qualifying for post-season play.

When the Wildcats beat Tewksbury 1-0 behind Jim Stewart's no-hitter on the last day of the season Gillis admitted that the goal had been reached - that everything thereafter was gravy. Some gravy.

When asked to compare the 1962 Gillis played WHS tournament team that lost to Randolph 6-5 in the championship game, Gillis would say only that the 1977 team is "bigger and stronger."

Softball League

June 4: At the bottom of the sixth with a tie score and two outs, Cheryl Richter hit a double to send in Barbie Cassidy for the winning run with which the Knee Socks beat the Munchkins 13-12. Barbie and Patty Cassidy pitched a great game for the Socks.

Major League

June 6: With four big runs in the bottom of the sixth, the Yankees upset the previously undefeated Tigers by the score of 9-8. Sean O'Beirne's two-out double, knocking in the winning run, and Kevin Cullivan's double highlighted the rally.

Joby Szymanski played an all around excellent game for the Pin Stripes. Leading the hitting attack for the Bengels were Ted Moran with a home run; Tim Sanville, Dave Florio and Tom Perry.

June 7: In a slug fest the Twins outlasted the Red Sox 16-10. Dan Gorski was the winning pitcher for the Twins while Bachwin of the Red Sox hit the game's only home run.

June 8: Behind the outstanding pitching of Ed Olshaw, the Indians defeated the Orioles 3-0 to avenge an early loss to the birds. The lanky hitting (home run and a double) of John Nolan led the tribe's hitting attack. Rob Santos and John Cushing pitched well for the Orioles.

June 9: By a 7-5 score the Angels swept their three game series with the Twins. Paul Valente and Kenny DeYoung each chipped in with two hits to lead the Angels' attack. Valente also pitched well in relief of Greg Fraser.

June 12: Regaining the winning touch, the Tigers defeated the Orioles 4-2 behind the excellent three hit and 12 strikeout pitching of Ted Moran. John Cushing pitched well in defeat and made the defensive play of the game with the diving leap of Ron Cahill's line drive.

June 12: Behind Bobby Marsolini's four hits and John Grant's game winning hit in the bottom of the sixth the White Sox outlasted the Angels 9-8.

Wildcat girls bow out

The WHS girls softball team bowed out of the Eastern Mass. Tourney struggle last Thursday with a 9-5 loss to Lynn English at the Livingston Street complex in Tewksbury.

WHS had advanced to the semi-final round Wednesday with an 8-1 conquest of Hamilton-Wenham at Livingston.

Game details: Wednesday, June 8-Wildcats 8, Hamilton-Wenham 1....Betty Cote tossed a three hitter as the Wildcats' rang loud and clear.

The girls got off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning as Barb Moulton ripped a groundball homer down the leftfield line; Joan Welch walked; Cheryl Cushing singled, and Cote followed with a two run double.

Wilmington put the game away in the third inning as they sent four more runs across to make it 7-0. Singles by Welch, Sheila Burns, and Cushing loaded the bases. Cote's infield out scored one run, and that was followed by Elaine Tshilis' RBI single. Janet Zambarnardi scored on the front half of a delayed double steal and Tshilis crossed with the fourth run of the inning on a throwing error by the Hamilton-Wenham catcher.

The final WHS run came in the fourth inning. Joan Welch scored when Burns' ground ball was bobbled for a double error.

Cote had no trouble with the H-W club as she had a no-hitter through four innings. She walked one and struck out six. The Wildcat offensive leaders were Burns who went three for four to key the 13 hit WHS attack. Welch, Tshilis and Dowd all had two hits apiece for the Wildcats.

Thursday June 9-Lynn English 9, Wildcats 5....The game girls went down fighting as Lynn English jumped on Betty Cote for eight runs in the first four innings to put the game away. Laurie Hastings, Sheila Burns, and Joan Welch led the Wildcat comeback attempt that saw then go ahead for the first and only time with three runs in the bottom of the first inning.

No rest for big guy

Wilmington catcher Bob Woods wasted no time putting on his protective gear last Thursday after he belted a 420 foot home run to put the Wildcats ahead 3-2 against Dom Savio. Next to Bob is Wilmington freshman Coach Eddie Harrison.
